

COVID-19 Communication

To all our guests attending Trades Hall, in these uncertain challenging times, we wanted to contact you personally about what we are doing to support you in your wedding planning.

There is a great deal of uncertainty surrounding how the country will deal with the Coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak however we want to assure you that we are doing everything we can to ensure your wedding goes ahead as planned.

As the official government advice currently stands, no gatherings are permitted with a number of guests over 500. At Trades Hall we do not expect any parties larger than this and therefore, we have no restriction on our wedding packages at present.

Safety of our guests and staff members is our highest priority and we take great pride in maintaining the highest standard of cleanliness and hygiene throughout Trades Hall. In response to the coronavirus, we have taken additional measures to make our cleaning and hygiene protocols even more rigorous.

Trades Hall has put into place the following procedures to help limit the coronavirus coming into our building and to our visitors and employees:

- All of our employees are fully aware of the current requirements and are undertaking extreme levels of health and safety procedure to ensure that the highest possible standards of hygiene are adhered to and maintained throughout the Hall
- Hand sanitisers have been placed throughout the building and we are advising both staff and visitors to the Hall to use these
- Staff have been advised to wash their hands with soap and water at regular intervals throughout the day.
- We have suspended shaking hands with potential visitors to the Hall until the threat is over
- Additional signage has been placed around the Hall to advise all visitors of the guidance from NHS Scotland
- We have advised all of our staff that should they have any of the symptoms of the coronavirus to stay home and seek medical attention as per the advice from the NHS
- Any member of staff who have returned from the affected areas abroad, or those that have come into contact with anyone that may have recently returned from these regions have been asked to self-quarantine for fourteen days

We are able to liaise with clients remotely if needed. Please click here to access the Trades Hall website where you can find further information on the Hall. Event enquiries can also be submitted via the website

We fully understand that it is vitally important for us to be in a position to ensure that we have the correct procedures in place to support the health and well-being of all visitors to the Hall and we will act accordingly to minimise any risks posed by COVID-19.

Should there be a change in government policy upon public gatherings which may lead to a situation where your wedding may not be able to go ahead on the planned date we will endeavour to honour your wedding on a new agreed different date.
